

FBC Greenville Sunday Morning Bible Study Options for Adults

Scott Blasingame and his wife Stacey lead the College and Career department of FBC Greenville. This class is made up of college-age young adults and singles. They just finished an expository study of the book of 1 Corinthians. Scott encourages group participation with a question and answer format. This class meets upstairs in the Education Building, Room 200A.

Bill McCord teaches an independent study class comprised of couples mainly in their 20s-30s. This discussion-based class provides an in depth study of books of the Bible, verse by verse. They are currently studying the book of Acts. Bill describes his students as a very spiritually mature class that asks a lot of tough questions. This class meets in the Choir Rehearsal Room.

Mike Ball is our newest Sunday School teacher. His sense of humor creates a lively atmosphere and makes his class a fun-filled discussion of the Bible. This group is made up of couples of all ages, but mainly ages 40 and above. They use the Explore the Bible curriculum, and are currently studying the book of Romans. This class is located in the FBC Education Building Room 100A.

Cari Uland draws upon knowledge and experiences gained on the mission field as she teaches the Ladies Class. This class selects topical or thematic studies based on the needs and desires of the class members. Currently, they are studying from the Psalms. The ladies in this class are of varying ages and backgrounds, but they describe themselves as very accepting and supportive of each other. The Ladies Class meets in the Education Building Room 100G.

Jack Harper leads an independent study focusing on various books of the Bible which are determined by the class members. His class is comprised of both couples and individuals of a variety of ages. They utilize a question-and-answer format, and are currently focusing on the book of Hebrews. His students say that Jack is a great teacher, and describe his class as a quality Bible study. Jack Harper's class meets in the Education Building Room 100B.

Randy Meeks has been teaching Sunday School for over 20 years. His class is an independent study of topical themes, mainly Bible characters, using a combination of lecture and open discussion. Currently, they are studying the life of David from Chuck Swindoll's book David: A Man of Passion and Destiny. This class is made up primarily of couples ranging in age from 50 to 65. They meet in the Education Building Room 100.

You are sure to find a welcoming atmosphere and interesting Bible Study in any of these classes. We hope you will join us this Sunday.
